

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

This research is examines the grammatical cohesion found in the articles “Kendrick Lamar, Dave Free Discuss Process Behind ‘We Cry Together’” by Hollywood Reporter, “Kendrick Lamar Says Intense “We Cry Together” Short Film ‘Challenged Me to Actually Live in What I Was Writing’” by Complex, “Kendrick Lamar and Taylour Paige: ‘We Cry Together’ Stems from How No One Can Agree on Anything Now” by IndieWire and Kendrick Lamar Talks About the Making of “We Cry Together” by Okay Player”.

The results of data processing show that Grammatical Cohesion use contained in the articles “Kendrick Lamar, Dave Free Discuss Process Behind ‘We Cry Together’” by Hollywood Reporter, “Kendrick Lamar Says Intense “We Cry Together” Short Film ‘Challenged Me to Actually Live in What I Was Writing’” by Complex, “Kendrick Lamar and Taylour Paige: ‘We Cry Together’ Stems from How No One Can Agree on Anything Now” by IndieWire and Kendrick Lamar Talks About the Making of “We Cry Together” by Okay Player”. The most frequently used Grammatical Cohesion is Conjunction which reaches 23 out of 53 data while Substitution was obtained the least compared to the others which each only has 1 data out of 53 analyzed data. Based on the result of these findings, the researcher concludes that Kendrick Lamar’s topic articles entitled “Kendrick Lamar Says Intense “We Cry Together” Short Film ‘Challenged Me to Actually Live in What I Was Writing’” by Complex, “Kendrick Lamar and Taylour Paige: ‘We Cry Together’ Stems from How No One Can Agree on Anything Now” by IndieWire and Kendrick Lamar Talks About the Making of “We Cry Together” by Okay Player.” more often used Cohesive Device Reference and Conjunction than Substitution and Ellipsis.

5.2 Suggestion

After examining this data, the researcher believes that all of the readers will be able to use it in their own writing, which will help the readers comprehend what they have written. The recommendation for more researchers is to use various genres in the study's subject. As a result, they will discover a different topic and a distinct data set. Additionally, it is hoped that English language lecturers would be able to use this research as an example of how to approach the study's topic, particularly when using the same materials in class.

