

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusions

Aladdin is a Disney animated film that aired in 1992 with the same title written based on the Aladdin folklore from the collection of stories of one thousand and one nights. Aladdin tells the story of an orphan who falls in love with princess Jasmine, befriends the desire-granting Genie, and should save his kingdom from Jafar. This research discusses the types of slang word formation in the Aladdin script movie (2019) and uses the theory of George Yule (2010) to discuss the types of slang word formation processes in the Aladdin movie script (2019).

There are ten types of word forming processes according to the theory of George Yule (2010), and researchers managed to find six types of word forming processes. After that, researchers classify and analyze slang that has a type of word formation process Clipping, Multiple Process, Blending, Compounding, Coinage, Derivation, and Borrowing. Data obtained from the script of the film Aladdin (2019) from the web movies.fandom.com and managed to get 24 slang data.

Based on the findings of 24 word formation data that were successfully found in the Aladdin (2019) film script, namely Clipping 5 data, Multiple Process 1 data, Blending 1 data, Compounding 5 data, Coinage 4 data, Derivation 2 data, and Borrowing 3 data. From this explanation, the author concludes that the most dominant word formation is Clipping and Compounding than other word formations.

The findings show that the process of word formation the found slang word corresponds to the script of the film Aladdin (2019). Aims to make the reader understand the meaning and process of forming slang words in the film.

5.2 Sugestions

After analyzing the study, the researcher has suggestions to convey. Researchers realized that this study was far from perfect. Researchers hope that this research can help students majoring in English Literature who will analyze the process of forming slang words. The object of the study discusses slang words in the film, Researchers suggest that others can discuss slang words in novels, songs, plays, and poems for analysis. The range of slang words that exist these days makes some human beings not recognize the meaning of the slang and do now not recognize how the slang word is formed. Researchers hope that the next research can make us understand more about slang words and the process of forming these words.
